

CONTENTS

Foreword
Vincent N. Parrillo	9

Introduction	15
--------------	----

PART I: SOCIOLOGY, AESTHETICS AND THEORY

1. Origin, Meaning and Relevance of Georg Simmel's Sociological Aesthetics Vincenzo Mele, Monmouth University, USA	39
2. Aesthetic Explanations Of The Social Bond: From Simmel To Maffesoli Eduardo de la Fuente, Monash University, Australia	59
3. Postmodern Aesthetization: Homo Holisticus's Sensorial and Emotional Experince Ada Cattaneo, University San Raffaele, Milan, Italy	77
4. The Style of Global Life. A Contribution to a Sociology of the Things Vincenzo Mele, Monmouth University, USA	115
5. The Flâneur and the City: Object and Subject of Sociological Analysis Giampaolo Nuvolati, University of Milan Bicocca, Italy	143

PART II: AESTHETICS, SPACE AND EVERYDAY LIFE IN THE CITIES

6. Silent narratives of folk art in urban spaces Gabriela Boangiu, Romanian Academy	165
7. Function or Imagination of the City? A Comparison Between Ideas of Art and Ideas of Society in Architecture and Urbanism Claudia Portioli, "University of Ferrara, Italy	175

8. Aesthetics, space and the new life of the city in the architectural theory of German Expressionism Claudia Lamberti, University of Pisa, Italy	189
9. Metropolitan citizenship and critiques of everyday life: between art and sociology Alexandre Cotovio Martins, New University of Lisbon and Catarina Mota, Media Consultant	205
10. Aestheticization of Everyday Life and Postmodern Cities Sonia Paone, University of Pisa, Italy	225
11. Applying Animated Film to Social Research: A Depiction of Bullycide Masahiro Ogino, Kwansei Gakuin University, Japan and Mayumi Yukimura Kwansei Gakuin University, Japan	241
Plates	263
Author Biographies	273